

PET PADS

There's no reason why your furry friends can't be chic too.

BEDS Let your pet snooze in style with one of these beds that won't look out of place, whether your furry friend likes to snuggle up in the kitchen or settle down beside your sofa. TOP Legowisko Play bed, €105, Hello Pets MIDDLE Cillín tweed and waxed cotton snug, €169, The Sheepish Dog BOTTOM Adventure Tent, €73.52, Tinker Trading Co.

BLANKETS Protect your floor, bed, or rug from pet hair and grubby paws with a dedicated mat or blanket, with designs to fit in with the rest of your interiors. TOP Ralph & Co sherpa blanket, €40.50, John Lewis & Partners MIDDLE Saguro wool dog mat, around €89, Person + Dog BOTTOM Richard bouclé wool mat, €134, 2.8 Design for Dogs

BOWLS Who knew your pet's dinnerware could rival your own? With sleek and creative designs, available in raised options too, you almost won't mind accidentally stepping into or tripping over one of these. TOP Btw Ceramics white torrent bowl, around €39, Aurora Pets MIDDLE Desco ash feeder, €119, MiaCara BOTTOM Roma feeder, €89, Lord Lou

SCRATCHING SURFACES Save the furniture from your cat's claws by providing a more enticing alternative, with a dedicated scratching toy or cat tree. Neutral tones won't provide a distraction from said furniture, either. TOP Albergo cat tree, €399 (two shown), MiaCara MIDDLE Ultimate cat scratcher lounge, around €53, PetFusion BOTTOM Sheepy scratching pad, around €160, Pettel

DINNER TIME Whether it's keeping treats safe or putting some manners on a messy eater, here are some accessories to make feeding time a more pleasant affair. TOP Stitch bone treat jar, €55.21, Mungo & Maud MIDDLE Bruce waxed paper placemat, €44, 2.8 Design for Dogs BOTTOM Saskia pet food storage set of two with scoop, around €50, Made

TOYS Sick of tripping up over garish plastic bones and multicoloured mice? You might as well stumble on a more design-friendly option. We can't promise it'll be any more enticing when they drop it on your lap, though. TOP Palla dog toy, €14.95, MiaCara MIDDLE Ware of the Dog hand-knit popcorn toy, around €28, Goodhood London BOTTOM White Rabbit catnip toy, around €14, Cheshire & Wain